

Hand Washing

It is important to look after your skin. Wash hands using steps below to remove any contamination from your skin promptly, and remember to thoroughly dry your skin after washing. Using moisturising creams can also help to protect your skin.

